ComplianceMAX Financial and Quest Continuing Education Announce Partnership

San Diego, CA – ComplianceMAX Financial Corporation, a leader in regulatory compliance technologies and services, announces a strategic partnership with Quest Continuing Education Solutions to provide regulatory training and continuing education courses to ComplianceMAX customers. The partnership will allow ComplianceMAX to expand its course offering to more than 100 financial industry Firm Element and Insurance CE courses.

“Regulatory training and CE are an essential component of our Small Business Compliance™ platform and integral in our strategy to serve small firms with the most comprehensive, value oriented compliance solutions,” says Lisa Roth, President and CEO of ComplianceMAX. She adds, “By partnering with Quest, a recognized leader in regulatory content, ComplianceMAX is able to address the training needs of our clients while allowing us to remain focused on our core competencies, compliance services and technologies.”

“We’re extremely excited about this partnership,” says Alan Krenke, President & CEO of Quest. He adds, “Quest places a high value on the quality of our content and an equally high value on our partners. ComplianceMAX shares our vision for quality, value and innovation which makes this an exceptional fit for both companies and our mutual customers as the benefactors.”
